

AGENDA

Date: September 30, 2010

Time: 1:00-4:30pm

Location: Hydro Place; 360 Portage Avenue, Winnipeg
3rd Floor: Rooms 603 & 604

Note: Guests Must Report to the Main Floor Security Desk upon Arrival for Name Tags

1:00-1:10	Introduction & MGUG Scholarship Presentation - Richard Lebedynski
1:10-1:50	The Nature Conservancy (TNC) - Chris Zganjar Nature Conservancy of Canada (NCC) - Cary Hamel Applied Climate-Change Analysis: The ClimateWizard Tool This web-based program allows the user to choose a state or country and both assess how climate has changed over time and to project what future changes are predicted to occur in a given area. ClimateWizard represents the first time ever the full range of climate history and impacts for a landscape brought together in a user-friendly format.
1:50-2:20	Manitoba Conservation, Forestry - Greg Carlson The Provincial Initiative for a GIS Enterprise The Government of Manitoba plans to create a GIS centre of excellence to provide geomatic expertise to all provincial departments.
2:20-2:40	Ice Breaker Group Activity: Get to know some GIS professionals
2:40-3:20	Health Break: Refreshments and Snacks provided by Manitoba Hydro
3:20-3:50	Manitoba Hydro - Rob Gerry The Property Parcel Fabric Project The creation of a structured and integrated Dominion Government Survey (DGS) and Parcel fabric (networks of measurements, computations, coordinates and survey points). Manitoba Hydro - Arch Csupak & Lindusia Chmieluk Brass Cap: The Survey Control Management System The survey control fabric is managed through the "Brass Cap" application which will enable MB Hydro to readily access, manage and disseminate Survey Control information.
3:50-4:20	University of Manitoba - Dr. David Walker Assessing the Cumulative Effect of Anthropogenic Development on Boreal Woodland Caribou in the NW Region of MB Modeling caribou habitat corridors and their relation to Manitoba Hydro's proposed transmission line along the Westside of the province.

For more information and a map to the location please visit our website:

www.mgug.ca

Thank you to our generous sponsors!

meeting place for the GIS community